It's a day full of wonderful adventures for the lively little otter and his big, cuddly friend. When evening falls, they ask one another why today was so extra-specially, heart-warmingly lovely. The answer trips straight off the otter's tongue: because they spent it together. "You know what?" says the big otter to the little otter, who has snuggled up to him and is looking up at his friend with his great big eyes, "You are my biggest delight!"
