Alea Aquarius

Band 1 - Der Ruf des Wassers

Alea Aquarius 1: The Water's Call

Marine mystery, adventure and a wonderful friendship! For as long as she can remember, Alea has felt drawn to the sea. But she is also afraid of it because coming into contact with water could be fatal to her – that's what Alea's mother told her foster mother before she disappeared. One day, Alea joins the Alpha Cru kids, who sail the sea on a yacht. During the first big storm, Alea is swept overboard. After that, nothing is the same again.

The first book in the cool mermaid series by bestseller author Tanya Stewner (author of Liliane Susewind).

AUTHOR

Tanya Stewner

Tanya Stewner did not fall in love with books at first sight. After her primary school teacher had told her parents it was unlikely that she would ever learn to read and write properly, the girl from the Bergisches Land did not develop her passion for writing until late, i.e. the age of ten. But from then on, it was the love of her life, and the stories came out in a flood. Born in 1974, Tanya Stewner studied English, German and literature, and worked for several years as a translator and editor. She now writes full-time. Her children's series Liliane Susewind and the adventures of the Hummelbi elves have achieved major international success.

ILLUSTRATOR

Claudia Carls

Claudia Carls was born in 1978 and studied children's and young adult book illustration in Hamburg. She works freelance, illustrating and designing picture books for her own manuscripts and those of other authors, books for children and young adult, reference works and posters.
