Bist du mein Papa? Are You My Daddy?

Sandra Grimm (Written by), Ina Hattenhauer (Illustrated by)

A little owl chick has just hatched – and he’s on a mission to find his dad! Along the way, he meets many friendly forest animals who help him in his search. By lifting the flaps, young readers can discover which baby animals are hiding behind them and learn their sounds together with the curious chick.

Told in gentle rhymes and brought to life with playful illustrations, this heartwarming story nurtures language development and fine motor skills through interactive fun. In the end, the owl chick’s search has a happy ending – he finds his daddy at last!

A delightful picture book for children aged 18 months and up about family, friendship, and the joy of discovery
